FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Club Travel Corporate Travel Management Company (TMC) hosts 'South Africa's Future' breakfast with Clem Sunter

Country Club Johannesburg, Auckland Park

Guests of Club Travel Corporate joined like-minded business executives for breakfast on Wednesday, 10 April 2013 in Johannesburg, where author and futurist, Clem Sunter, shared his views on South Africa's future.

Club Travel Corporate hosted clients and Kaya FM Business Show listeners at this event where not only was the topic of future business within South Africa discussed, but opportunities were also available for delegates to network and share their views. "Guests thoroughly enjoyed the morning and although many had heard Clem Sunter speak on previous occasions, felt that he shared some interesting views and were looking forward to future Club Travel Corporate discussions", said Jeremy Heathcote, Club Travel Corporate National Sales Manager.

Club Travel Corporate is a division of Club Travel which was established in 1987. As a Level One Contributor, Club Travel is owned by the Thebe Tourism Group and effectively operates in leisure, corporate, executive and online travel, groups/conference/incentives/events as well as in franchise travel business opportunities.
