CLUB TRAVEL VOTED AFRICA'S LEADING TRAVEL AGENCY

Club Travel South Africa was named Africa's Leading Travel Agency for a 7th successive year at the 20th annual World Travel Awards Africa Gala Ceremony held at the Safari Park Hotel & Casino in Nairobi, Kenya last night (16 October 2013).

The annual World Travel Awards are determined by votes received from travel and tourism professionals worldwide, and the trophy presented to Club Travel recognises the commitment and excellence demonstrated by the company during 2013.

"The World Travel Awards is the most prestigious prize in the global travel and tourism industry, therefore it is an honour to be awarded the title of Africa's Leading Travel Agency for the 7th successive time. This award is testament to our continued efforts to improve our product and service offering," said Club Travel MD Wally Gaynor.

Club Travel – Globalstar National Sales Manager, Jeremy Heathcote accepted the winner's trophy and plaque in front of an audience which included the travel industry's leading luminaries and international media representatives.

"We are delighted to be named Africa's Leading Travel Agency for the 7th consecutive year. At Club Travel we are passionate about understanding and meeting our clients' needs. We do this by drawing on a number of travel technologies to tailor make travel packages for the Corporate and Leisure markets, at the very best price. This technology has seen us grow in the Corporate marketplace, extending the philosophy of shared values to our clients, suppliers and stakeholders. We regard this award as proof that our approach pays off again and again," said Heathcote.

Club Travel was also nominated in the 'World's Leading Travel Agency' category.

Fellow nominees in Africa's Leading Travel Agency category included Flight Centre South Africa, FlightSite South Africa, Kuoni Travel South Africa, Sure Giltedge Corporate Travel South Africa, Sure Travel South Africa, Thomas Cook Egypt and Travel Counsellors South Africa.
