Club Travel maintained its winning streak and triumphed once again at the World Travel Awards 2016. After being an annual recipient of the World Travel Awards since 2007, this past Saturday saw Club Travel being named both ‘South Africa’s Leading Travel Agency’ for the third consecutive year, along with taking home the award for ‘South Africa’s Leading Travel Management Company’.

The prestigious awards ceremony took place at Diamonds La Gemma dell'Est resort in Zanzibar. Acting as hosts on the night were African film star Abby Platjies and Tanzanian radio personality Taji George Liundi. Guests were also entertained by Italian opera sensation Iaria Della Bidia, contortionist Erika Lemay and a traditional Ngoma drum group, who all gave memorable performances.

Hailed as the travel industry’s highest honour, the World Travel Awards brand is recognised globally as a trademark of quality, with winners setting the benchmark to which all others aspire. This accolade is granted as a special honour or as an acknowledgment of excellence across all sectors. The winners are voted for by travel and tourism professionals and consumers worldwide.

“It is an honour to be recognised amongst the best! No matter how many times we’ve taken home a World Travel Award, it’s still an immense honour to have our name read out on the night”, said Club Travel Franchise Director, Jo Fraser, upon return from Zanzibar.

“We’re grateful to the people who voted, and to the World Travel Awards for hosting a remarkable evening where we could celebrate the amazing work being done in the travel and tourism industry. Club Travel will continue to serve our clients with passion and excellence”, said Charmaine van Niekerk, HR & Operations Director of Club Travel, who was also in attendance.
