CLUB TRAVEL WINS AT ASATA DINERS CLUB AWARDS

Club Travel is overwhelmed with excitement, as two of our employees (or staff members) namely Gary Mulder, Financial Director and Minette Fourie our Marketing Team Leader & Graphic Designer were announced nominees at the ASATA Diner's Club Awards 2014, at the spectacular Montecasino Ballroom in Fourways, Gauteng on Saturday, 28 February 2015.

Otto de Vries, CEO of Association of Southern African Travel Agents (ASATA) describes this prestigious event as, "An opportunity to honour travel agents who are consistently improving on their service by upgrading their skills, keeping pace with current trends and ensuring that travellers are informed of any changes in everything from government legislation and health issues to the best time of the year to travel to chosen destinations."

Minette Fourie was named Tomorrows' Leader, the award which is aimed at up-and-coming leaders who show signs of leadership and implementing change and innovative ideas in the industry.

"Minette being recognised by ASATA and Diners Club, at an event reserved for the best in the travel industry, is testament to her pure dedication, passion, hard work and the will to succeed. We are extremely proud of Minette and the feedback from colleagues, peers and suppliers in support of this accolade has been phenomenal." – Luana Visagie, Club Travel Marketing Manager.

We are honoured and proud to work with such dynamic and inspiring colleagues. The Club Travel family takes pride in their work ethics and continuously strives for service excellence. We congratulate Minette on her outstanding achievement.
